The Mountain Heritage Festival Baby Pageant is a member of the Kentucky Festival Pageant Association. Winners of each category will be eligible to enter the state finals in November. Winners will be contacted by the Kentucky Festival Pageant Association.

The Letcher County Mountain Heritage Baby Pageant sponsored by the Mountain Heritage Festival Committee will be held on Monday, September 17, 2018 at the Letcher County Central High School Auditorium.

The pageant will begin at 6:30 p.m. All contestants must be residents of Letcher County.

Applications must be accompanied by a $30 entry fee and must be received by Monday, September 10, 2018 in order to get contestants name on program. Late applications will not be accepted.

You may also enter your child in Most Photogenic in the age category. For those who would like to enter their child's picture, an additional $15 should be included along with the entry fee.

An 8x10 photo should be submitted for the judges during the Sunday practice. Photos must be brought to the practice; preferably in a frame or plastic sleeve with contestants name on the back.

Your signature indicates your approval for participation in this pageant and relinquishes any liability of accident from the Letcher County Central High School. All judges' decisions will be final. Trophies will be awarded in each class to the Winner, Runner Up, and Most Photogenic. Participation trophies will be presented to all participants not receiving any of the above.

Please place your child in the correct age category at the time of participation in the pageant.
